Press Invitation

HKPOP releases the Year-end Review and "We Kongkongers" survey results, as well as the latest development of other projects

Hong Kong Public Opinion Program (HKPOP) under the Hong Kong Public Opinion Research Institute (HKPORI) will hold a press conference this afternoon (December 30), where it will announce the results of its "Year-end Review" series as well as the latest survey of "We Hongkongers 我們香港人" using this question: "The newly elected District Councilors will assume office soon, which of the following four areas would you expect the District Councils to focus on? Options: 1) Provision of welfare and entertainments, e.g. gifts and activities; 2) Cases follow-up, e.g. handling complaints; 3) Policy innovation, e.g. promoting community economy; 4) Promotion of democracy, e.g. encouraging residents' engagement and monitoring".

HKPOP's usual practice is to release its "year-end survey series" before the end of each year for public consumption. The "Year-end Review" to be released later today is the last survey series this year.

Besides, the President of HKPORI will explain to the press about the latest development of the "Community Integration through Civility and Democracy" Project and the "Macau Study Series".

The media is invited to send representatives to attend the press conference. At the press conference, honorary commentators will interpret the results. Details are as follows:
