Press Invitation

HKPOP releases special survey on the government's ten livelihood initiatives and Survey Report no.4 of its Community Democracy Project

As soon as the Government announced the ten livelihood initiatives, the Hong Kong Public Opinion Program (HKPOP) under the Hong Kong Public Opinion Research Institute (HKPORI) immediately conducted an online survey of its POP Panel members to gauge people's support on each initiative, along with their views on certain social issues. About 10,000 members have expressed their views. HKPOP will hold a press conference tomorrow (January 17) afternoon to release this special report, as well as its fourth survey report of the Community Democracy Project, with special focus on the Kowloon City Whampoa West constituency and the constituencies* covered by the "Eleven Amateurs of Tuen Mun". Two District Councilors from these constituencies will respond to the findings at the press conference. The media is invited to send representatives to attend the press conference. Details are as follows:

Date: January 17, 2020 (Friday)

Time: 2:30pm

Venue: 3rd Floor, SPA Centre, 53-55 Lockhart Road, Wanchai
