Press Invitation (Update)

HKPOP will release this Friday our “We Hongkongers Survey” on the arrest of a journalist for conducting vehicle registration searches and the “Post-Epidemic Gathering Resumption Index”

The Hong Kong Public Opinion Program (HKPOP) under the Hong Kong Public Opinion Research Institute (HKPORI) will hold a press conference this Friday (November 20) afternoon to release our “We Hongkongers Survey” on the arrest of a journalist for conducting vehicle registration searches and the “Post-Epidemic Gathering Resumption Index”.

HKPOP has re-launched its “We Hongkongers” Initiative in late May. Every week we invite Hong Kong people to suggest current affairs survey questions to us via our Facebook page, then cast their votes online to select the question(s) for our “We Hongkongers Panel Survey”, and then release the results. This week’s survey is the twenty-fifth round and the question is: “There is a saying the recent arrest of a journalist for conducting vehicle registration searches would suppress press freedom. How much do you support or oppose this saying?” Up to 10:30 am today, almost 5,000 submissions have been received. Results will be announced this Friday (November 20) afternoon. Please stay tuned.

On the other hand, HKPOP continues to release the “Post-Epidemic Gathering Resumption Index” (PEGRI) on a daily basis, please visit our website at <https://www.pori.hk/penri> for previous figures. Here are today’s reading of PEGRI:
