Press Invitation (Revised)

HKPOP will release tomorrow the popularity figures of CE and the government, and the newly constructed “Post-Epidemic Work Resumption Index”

The Hong Kong Public Opinion Program (HKPOP) under the Hong Kong Public Opinion Research Institute (HKPORI) will hold a press conference tomorrow (April 21) afternoon to release the latest survey results on popularity figures of the Chief Executive and the government. Moreover, as the coronavirus epidemic in Hong Kong subsides, people begin to discuss under what conditions should everyday life resume normal. HKPOP has promptly constructed a “Post-Epidemic Work Resumption Index” (PEWRI) based on opinion data gathered from scientific surveys for public and policy reference. The release of our “Community Health Survey” Report No. 11 and “Community Health Information System” Report No. 5 mentioned in the earlier draft of this press invitation will be postponed. The media is invited to send representatives to attend the press conference, details as follows:

Date: April 21, 2020 (Tuesday)
Time: 2:30pm
Venue: 3rd Floor, SPA Centre, 53-55 Lockhart Road, Wanchai
Convenor: Robert Chung President and CEO, HKPORI
Speakers: Lewis Loud Current affairs commentator
 Edward Tai Data Science Manager, HKPORI

To facilitate media participation amidst the epidemic, HKPOP will also arrange to take questions from the press through online conferencing using “Skype Meet Now”. Please call Miss Lee at the following number to make arrangements. Reporters are advised to download Skype first and there is no need to register the Skype account in advance. Details will be announced before the press conference begins.

For any enquiries, please contact Miss Lee at 6641 2363 or by email enquiry@pori.hk.
