Press Invitation

HKPOP will release next Monday latest results of “Post-Epidemic Work Resumption Index”, “Community Health Survey” Report No. 11, and “Community Health Information System” Report No. 5; Next Tuesday it will release the ratings of top ten political groups

As the coronavirus epidemic in Hong Kong subsides, people begin to discuss under what conditions should everyday life resume normal. The Hong Kong Public Opinion Program (HKPOP) under the Hong Kong Public Opinion Research Institute (HKPORI) has promptly constructed a “Post-Epidemic Work Resumption Index” (PEWRI) based on opinion data gathered from scientific surveys for public and policy reference. The latest results will be released at the press conference next Monday (April 27) afternoon. Moreover, the “Community Health Project” of HKPOP continues to collect people’s views on the pandemic, latest questions include when to lift the regulation prohibiting gatherings, their standards for work and school resumption, appraisals on the performances of Hong Kong government and the World Health Organization in handling the pandemic, and so on. Its Report No. 11 will be released at the press conference. Besides, the “Community Health Information System (CHIS)” continues to track people’s possession of protective masks across different districts, its Report No. 5 will also be released at the same occasion. The media is invited to send representatives to attend the press conference, details as follows:

Date: April 27, 2020 (Monday)
Time: 2:30pm
Venue: 3rd Floor, SPA Centre, 53-55 Lockhart Road, Wanchai
Convener: Robert Chung President and CEO, HKPORI
Speakers: Joseph Tsang Specialist in Infectious Disease
Edward Tai Data Science Manager, HKPORI

Next Tuesday (April 28) afternoon HKPOP will hold another press conference to release the last round of ratings of top ten political groups before July 1, 2020. Whether the survey will be continued depends on the amount of public support. Details of the press conference are as follows:

Date: April 28, 2020 (Tuesday)
Time: 2:30pm
Venue: 3rd Floor, SPA Centre, 53-55 Lockhart Road, Wanchai
Convener: Robert Chung President and CEO, HKPORI
Speakers: Edmund Cheng Associate Professor in Department of Public Policy and Associate Director of Political Analysis Lab, City University of Hong Kong
Edward Tai Data Science Manager, HKPORI

To facilitate media participation amidst the pandemic, HKPOP will also arrange to take questions from the press through online conferencing using “Skype Meet Now”. Please call Miss Lui at the following number to make arrangements. Reporters are advised to download Skype first and there is no need to register the Skype account in advance. Details will be announced before the press conference begins.
