香港教育中心商會副主席任偉豪指出：「今天開始，英國正式對已完成疫苗接種的國民取消隔離限制。此舉必定令英國的旅遊業、商貿及其相關行業快速復甦。雖然現時英國每日確診人數依然近五萬人，但他們已經不以確診人數為放寬防疫措施的依据了。回望香港，我們還繼續以『清零』為目標，只要有一宗確診個案，就緊張得要命。在防疫的思維上，我們不是太落後了嗎？」

Vice Chairman of The Hong Kong Chamber of Education Centres Yam Wai Ho observed, “Starting today, UK has lifted all quarantine requirements on citizens who have completed the vaccination. This move would definitely let her tourism, commerce and related industries recover quickly. Although the number of newly confirmed cases in UK is still close to 50,000 every day, she no longer uses it as a basis for enforcing epidemic prevention measures. Looking back at Hong Kong, we are still fixated at ‘zero infection’, meaning that we would be extremely nervous even for one single confirmed case. Aren’t we falling behind in our mindset about epidemic prevention?”
