Group Gathering Prohibition Index – Commentary

香港教育中心商會副主席任偉豪指出:「早前經濟學人智庫指出,隨著全球經濟重 啟,假如有些國家或城市未能恢復通關,或會令本身的商業中心地位永久受損,相 信香港有很多行業都有同感。如果我們只為追求零確診,而比其他地區遲通關,必 定會長遠影響香港的整體經濟。我希望政府及早轉變零確診的目標,以挽救香港經 濟。」

Vice Chairman of The Hong Kong Chamber of Education Centres Yam Wai Ho observed, "The Economist Intelligence Unit pointed out that with the restart of the global economy, those countries or cities which do not resume border crossing with have their status as commercial centers permanently damaged. I believe that many industries in Hong Kong share the same feeling. If we would just pursue zero infection and open our border later than other regions, Hong Kong's overall economy would definitely be damaged in the long run. I hope the government would change the goal of zero infection as soon as possible to save our economy."
