民生大聯盟發言人章彤輝博士指出，「業界因著新一輪的防疫政策而要設法自救，例如花農要尋找場所出售年貨，旅遊巴士司機亦希望能安排接載乘客。過年期間因為沒有晚市堂食，令不少市民今年過節的心情都受到影響。相信市民會減少外出，或減少活動的規模，或轉為較靜態的活動。」

Dr Tung-fai Cheung, Spokesman of Alliance of Revitalizing Economy and Livelihood, observed, “As a result of the new epidemic prevention policy, the industry has to find ways to survive, for example, florists have to look for venues to sell their Chinese New Year products. Coach drivers are hoping to arrange for passenger pick-ups too. The non-availability of evening dine-in service during the Chinese New Year has affected the mood of many people. It is believed that people will go out less, or reduce the scale of their activity, or switch to a more sedentary activity.”
